Submission Guidelines

Rules for Submission

- Abstracts must be submitted online via the website only. Abstracts submitted by email will not be accepted.
- Presentation Type: Abstracts may be submitted for Oral/Poster/E-Poster discussion presentation.

The Scientific Committee will determine whether the abstract will be accepted for presentation, with consideration given to the author's preference.

- Abstracts must be received by the announced deadline. Abstracts received after the deadline will not be considered.
- The presenting author is required to ensure that all co-authors are aware of the content of the abstract and agree to its submission, before submitting the abstract.
- Presenting authors must be registered participants.
Accepted during regular abstract submission: Only abstracts of presenting authors who have paid their registration fees by 14 December 2022 will be scheduled for presentation and included for publication. Accepted during late-breaking abstract submission: Only abstracts of presenting authors who have paid their registration fees by 22 February 2023 will be scheduled for presentation and included for publication.
- Submission of an abstract acknowledges your acceptance for the abstract to be published in the official Congress publications.
- Abstracts must be original and must not have been published or presented at any other meeting prior to the 7th International Congress on Controversies in Rheumatology and Autoimmunity (CORA 2023).
- Abstracts must be submitted in English. All abstracts should be submitted and presented in clear English with accurate grammar and spelling of a quality suitable for publication. If you need help, please arrange for the review of your abstract by a colleague who is a native English speaker, by a university specific publications office (or other similar facility) or by a copy editor, prior to submission.
- Disclosure of Conflicts of Interest: Abstract submitters will be required to disclose any conflict of interests in the submission form.
