

FAQ

Q: If I submit an abstract do I have to attend the congress?

A: It is expected that at least one author of the accepted abstract attends the meeting to present the work and answer questions. Only abstracts of registered participants will be scheduled in the Scientific Program.

Q: I have submitted an abstract, when will I know if it has been accepted?

A: Only after all abstracts have been reviewed by the Scientific Committee notifications will be sent to the abstract submitters. Every effort is made to conclude this process by 30 November 2022 for the regular abstract submission. Please visit the Abstract Submission and Guidelines page for more details.

Q: If my abstract is accepted, where will it be published?

A: Registered participants' abstracts will be published. The registered abstracts of oral presentations can be found in the interactive program. Registered abstracts for both Orals and e-Posters can be found in the Conference App.

Q: My abstract is accepted for presentation, what should I prepare?

A: Please refer to the CORA 2023 Presentation Checklist and follow the guidelines in accordance with the category for which your abstract has been accepted.
